

Programme of the international seminar:

„Partnerships between specialist palliative care settings within
WHO European Region”

Gdańsk, Poland

3rd of August 2023, 10am-13pm (Thursday)

Event organizer

Deputy of Palliative Medicine, Medical University of Gdańsk, Gdańsk Poland

Venue

Department of Family Medicine, Dębinki 2, Gdańsk, seminar room no 25 (1st floor)

10.00 Words of welcome

Dr. Habil. Agnieszka Zimmermann, Pharm.D., Assoc. Prof. Vice-Rector for the Quality of Teaching, Head of Division of Medical and Pharmacy Law, Medical University of Gdańsk, Poland

Prof. Monika Lichodziejewska-Niemierko MD PhD, Head of Department of Palliative Medicine, Medical University of Gdańsk, Poland

10.10 “Palliative care in Poland”

Prof. Wojciech Leppert MD PhD, Head of Department of Palliative Medicine, Institute of Medical Sciences, Collegium Medicum, University of Zielona Góra, Poland, National Consultant in Palliative Medicine, Poland

10.20 “Postgraduate education in palliative care in Central Asia, Eastern and South-Eastern Europe”

Dr Andreas Stähli PhD, Director of the Akademie am Johannes Hospiz Münster, Germany

10.50 “Current practice and challenges of hospices in Poland - St. Christopher Hospice in Warsaw and Hospice in Bramki”

Maria Wysocka MSc, Palliative Care Science & Research Associate, St. Christopher Oncology Hospice Foundation in Warsaw, Poland

11.00 “Nursing education and practice in palliative care in Poland”

Michał Miewski MSc, St. Lawrence Hospice in Gdynia, Regional Consultant in Palliative Care Nursing in Pomeranian Province

11.10 “Main projects and everyday activity of St. Padre Pio Hospice in Puck”

Anna Jochim-Labuda MSc, President of the Padre Pio Hospice in Puck, Poland

11.20 “Paediatric palliative care in Poland from Pomeranian Hospice for Children perspective”

Dr. Habil. Maciej Niedźwiecki MD PhD, Department of Paediatrics, Haemathology & Oncology, Medical University of Gdańsk, Medical Director of the Pomeranian Hospice for Children, Plenipotentiary of the Palliative Care for Ministry of Health, Poland

11.30 – 13.00 Discussion and networking